INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 4/1/74

Information received earlier this date from the [redacted] to Senator Percy of Illinois that an anonymous call had been received at the Senator's office, Dirksen Federal Building. Unidentified male stated, "Get this. He is going to be blown up unless you leave $50,000 in the Greyhound Bus Station."

Attached reports that the Chicago Police Department arrested [redacted] on drunk and disorderly charge. While being transported to Chicago police lock up, he advised officers he knew where there was a bomb. He later stated there was no bomb. Subsequently he admitted making telephone call to Senator Percy's secretary and told her he wanted $10,000 or Senator Percy was going to be blown up. [redacted] stated that he had no bomb and was just attempting to get some money. He admitted having some drinks prior to making the call. [redacted] further stated on 3/31/74, he had made a telephone call somewhere and demanded some money and threatened to blow up the President's airplane. He denied making any further bomb threats or extortionate calls. Local police presently holding [redacted] on drunk and disorderly charge and filing disorderly conduct charges against [redacted] in regard to bomb threat statements made to Chicago police officer.

[REDACTED]
SENATOR CHARLES H. PERCY,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS - VICTIM
APRIL 1, 1974
BOMB THREAT; ASSAULTING A FEDERAL OFFICER

On April 1, 1974, Mr. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Senator Charles H. Percy, Republican, Illinois, telephonically contacted the Chicago Division, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and advised that the Senator's secretary, [REDACTED], received an anonymous telephone call at 12:05 p.m.
this date at Chicago, Illinois. A male voice stated, "Get this, he is going to be blown up unless you leave $50,000 in the Greyhound Bus Station." The unidentified male voice then stated, "I'm not going to hang on, you have only 35 minutes."
The caller then hung up. Mr. [REDACTED] advised that Senator Percy is in Washington, D. C., and will not be returning to Chicago in the near future. [REDACTED] has no suspects.

On April 2, 1974, Detective [REDACTED] Bomb and Arson
Squad, Chicago, Illinois, Police Department, advised that a [REDACTED] was arrested on April 1, 1974, in the Greyhound Bus Terminal, Chicago, Illinois. [REDACTED] was charged with being drunk and disorderly and while being transported to the Chicago Police Department Lockup, he advised officers that they were going to be sorry because he knew where there was a bomb. [REDACTED] indicated to the arresting officers that he had placed a telephone call to Senator Percy's office in Chicago but refused to elaborate any further. Upon interview, [REDACTED] advised that a bomb composed of six sticks of dynamite to be detonated by a Westclox clock was located in Locker 822 or 825 at the Greyhound Bus Station. He subsequently stated that there was no bomb at that location and that he was just talking.

Upon interview by a Bureau Agent, [REDACTED] advised that at approximately 12:00 noon, April 1, 1974, he made a telephone call to Senator Percy's [REDACTED] and told her that he wanted $10,000 or Senator Percy was going to be blown up. [redacted] further stated he advised Percy's secretary to put the money in Locker 822, Greyhound Bus Station, and then terminated the telephone call. [redacted] stated that he had no bomb and that he was just attempting to get some money.

[redacted] advised further that on March 31, 1974, he had made a telephone call somewhere and demanded money, threatening to blow up the President's airplane. He stated he made no other bomb threats or extortion telephone calls. He declined further interview stating he wanted an attorney.

[redacted] was subsequently charged locally by the Chicago, Illinois, Police Department with drunk and disorderly conduct and with disorderly conduct for falsely reporting a bomb to police officers. When arrested on April 1, 1974, [redacted] admitted to arresting officers that he had been drinking heavily for the past several days. Detective [redacted] Bomb and Arson Squad, Chicago, Illinois, Police Department, advised he feels that [redacted] is responsible for numerous threatening telephone calls made between March 30 and April 1, 1974, as the same modus operandi was used on each occasion. The caller repeatedly threatened to detonate six sticks of dynamite at either the Greyhound Bus Station or the Chicago Post Office.

Detective [redacted] further stated that [redacted] appeared in local court on April 2, 1974, and was ordered to a full psychiatric examination by Dr. [redacted] the court psychiatrist. [redacted] is presently assigned $1,000 bond and is rescheduled for court appearance on April 11, 1974, Room 900, 11th and State Streets, Chicago, Illinois. On pending local charges of drunk and disorderly conduct and falsely reporting a bomb, the Chicago Police Department is named as the complainant as Senator Percy, through his Administrative Assistant [redacted] requested the situation be handled in this manner. The Senator's staff feels that so doing would avoid adverse publicity and avoid the possibility of some other mentally deranged person getting the idea to make the same or similar threats against Senator Percy.

On April 2, 1974, Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] Chief Criminal Prosecutor, United States Attorney's Office, Chicago, Illinois, was advised of the facts of this case. He stated he does not desire to charge [redacted] with assaulting Senator Percy through threatening or extortionate telephone calls made to the Senator's secretary. He stated his decision is based on the subject's apparent or indicated mental incompetency. Mr. [REDACTED] further advised that it is in the best interest of the Federal Government to defer psychiatric examination and any possible criminal prosecution to local authorities as they presently have custody of the subject and are better prepared to handle this particular incident.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

4/2/74

You were previously advised that [redacted], while under arrest in Chicago, Illinois, on 4/1/74, on a drunk and disorderly charge, admitted making a telephone call to [redacted] of Senator Percy and told her that he wanted $10,000 or Senator Percy was going to be blown up. As a result, Chicago Police Department also filed charges in regard to bomb threats statements [redacted] had made.

Attached advised that [redacted] went on trial for disorderly conduct (falsely reporting a bomb) on 4/2/74. He denied threatening to blow up Senator Percy but stated he had called Senator Percy's [redacted] and said he would detonate a bomb at the Greyhound bus station or the Post Office if $5,000 was not paid to him. [redacted] held for full psychiatric examination. Bond set at $1,000 and ordered to appear 4/11/74.

On pending charges, Chicago Police Department listed as complainant as requested by Senator Percy in effort to avoid adverse publicity and avoid possibility of other mentally deranged person getting idea to make similar threats.
